

TRAVELLER'S CONTRACT

The undersigned will take part in a trip organized by BTEExpert srl, under exclusive license from Bikers American Dream, Inc..

Given this characteristic, the planned program may undergo changes as a consequence of unexpected events that may affect the schedule, travel times and riding safety of the group.

The Tour Guide, who is an experienced person, is entitled to determine the opportunity for changes or variations to the program according to travel conditions. However, it is the Tour Guide's task to respect and follow as much as possible the defined program.

In case of variation as described above, no compensation or damages may be claimed by the Participant.

BTEExpert / Bikers American Dream is responsible only for reserving hotels, flights, hiring the motorbikes and organizing the route. BTEExpert / Bikers American Dream will not be held legally responsible in the case of traffic accidents, extreme weather conditions, the poor state of a road or natural disasters.

All participants must be 21 years old or over to be able to ride a motorbike in the USA.

Participants are entirely responsible for their own safety and that of their passenger.

All participants declare themselves to be used to riding a powerful motorbike and to be capable of riding the bike safely, even in difficult conditions and for prolonged periods of time.

The undersigned rider or passenger undertakes to visit a doctor for a medical check up before coming on the trip to ensure they are in appropriate physical shape to withstand high temperatures and long days riding (sometimes more than 400 km a day), and confirm that they can handle the physical demands of this type of trip.

No compensation may be claimed by the Participant in the event of severe or extreme weather conditions that may be encountered during the tour. Being ready for this kind of event is one of the conditions that go under the definition "adventure" type holiday which the participant agrees to upon booking the trip.

All participants agree to respect the speed limits, safety regulations and traffic laws of the Country/ State where the trip takes place. All participants accept sole responsibility for their vehicle, and will take care not to put other group members in danger through their handling of their motorbike.

Failure to comply with any of these rules will result in Participant being liable for any damages caused or fine imposed.

The motorbike hire company will scan of each participant's credit card and keep an electronic copy of the image as security. Each participant is responsible for the motorbike they have rented, and are liable for the payment for any damages caused by an accident. They are also liable for the value of the bike in case of theft. Each participant will receive a chain and anti theft devices on hiring the motorbike, and undertakes to use these whenever recommended to do so by the guide. The insurance coverage provided by the bike rental organization and proposed by the tour organization does not cover:

- damages from accidents with other bike in the same group;
- any damage to the tyres (including puncture).

The participant hereby undertakes to show a willingness to adapt to the group, and help build the team spirit, respecting timings given by the guide, and following advice regarding how to behave in the country where the tour takes place.

In the case of collision, the participant undertakes to respect the advice given by the guides, all of whom are highly experienced.

In general, the participant will show a respectful attitude towards the other members of the group, following the rules established by the group: no aggressive behaviour, adhering to the team spirit, showing respect for other nationalities and differences in political and religious beliefs and so contribute to a positive attitude among the group.

The participant will be understanding and helpful if another member of the group has an accident or mechanical problems.

The participant undertakes to complete the entire planned route with the rest of the group. Once the participant has reached the hotel at the end of the day's travelling, they are free to do their own thing or stay with the group.

The organizer / BTEExpert / Bikers American Dream is not responsible for the safety or the behavior of Participant when he leaves the group.

BTEExpert / Bikers American Dream invites all the participants to get to know each other before departure and would like permission to share e mail addresses and telephone numbers with all members of the group. Your written permission is to be given by signing below, and in giving this permission your details will no longer be covered by data protection laws, though the company undertakes to only share your details with other members of your group

The terms and conditions agreed in this contract between BTEExpert / Bikers American Dream and the undersigned are extended to Harley-Davidson Motor Company and the directors and staff in the USA, both in the head office and other branches.
